May, 1955

REF: NJA-4-791, 797

1. Headquarters Action Required:

To determine whether to assess Subject upon his arrival in New York at the end of June 1955.

2. Synopsis of Developments:

The agent was met 5 times. He reported on his efforts to implement a KUCAGE project for us and also supplied some material on local Caucasian organizations and local political developments.

3. Account of Developments:

- a. During the month we planned a KUCAGE/ ( ) operation in which MOSTELL was to obtain Husa Majalli's cooperation and the use of his name in a newspaper blast against Russian imperialism and the Chinese Communists. This project did not pan out however, because of Majalli's lack of incriminating or derogatory information regarding Communist activity at ( ) because of Prime Minister Abul Husa's ban on unlicensed press releases.
- b. Subject delivered a report on the current status of the Caucasian Clubs in Amman.
- c. Subject reported on an attempt by the prominent Circassian Mufti brothers to elicit the support of the British Ambassador.
- d. On 27 May we got the news of MOSTELL's travel arrangements which call for his departure from the Kingdom on 6 June 1955.
